CALL FOR ARTISTS

8^ EDITION

NucleikArt - Call for Artists

8th Edition

NucleikArt announces the eighth edition of its Call for Artists—an open call for creators who wish to showcase their work as part of a group exhibition dedicated to contemporary creativity.

The Call seeks projects capable of surprising, engaging, and stimulating the audience, transforming the exhibition space into a stage for visual research and contemporary artistic expression.

Who can participate?

The call is open to artists of any age and from any geographical location.
Eligible participants include:

- Painters
- Photographers
- Illustrators
- Sculptors
- Designers
- Digital artists
- NFT creators

Works may be created using any technique, medium, or format, with full respect for creative freedom.

How to participate

To participate, you must:

1. Complete the registration form.
2. Send images of your works to nucleika@gmail.com by March 10, 2027.
3. Photographs must show the work in its entirety—including any frame or mount—to provide an accurate representation of how it will be displayed.
4. Each artist may submit a maximum of two works.
5. Selected artists must deliver their works printed and ready for exhibition.

Selection process

Works will be evaluated by the NucleikArt team; their decision is final and not subject to appeal.
Selected artists will be notified on March 16, 2027.
Works that promote hate, discrimination, or violence in any form will not be accepted.
NucleikArt fosters an inclusive and open environment where creativity can be expressed without limits.

Exhibition and promotion

The group exhibition will take place in Catania from April 3 to April 18, 2027.
The vernissage is scheduled for Saturday, April 3, 2027, at 7:00 PM.
The exhibition will be promoted via NucleikArt’s social media channels and website.
Each selected artist will have a dedicated personal page featuring their biography and a description of the exhibited works. All selected works will be included in a free digital catalog in PDF format, which will also be available in a printed version upon request.

Participation costs

Participation in the call is free of charge.
All costs related to the transport, shipping, packaging, and return of the works are to be borne entirely by the artist.

Delivery of Artworks

Selected artworks must be delivered or shipped by March 29, 2027, to:

NucleikArt Gallery
Via Umberto 145
95129 Catania

Artworks must be properly packed. The packaging must include instructions for repacking, as it will be reused by the gallery for the return of the artwork.

Return of Artworks

Artworks that are not sold or collected may be:
• Picked up in person at the gallery;
• Returned via courier, at the artist's expense.
The return must take place within 30 days of the exhibition's closing.
The provided packaging must be suitable for reuse.

Liability and Insurance

NucleikArt commits to ensuring the utmost care and security for the artworks during the exhibition period.
However, NucleikArt disclaims all liability for any damage, theft, or accidents.
Artists are advised to obtain insurance coverage for their artworks.

Acceptance of Terms and Conditions

By entering the Call, the artist fully accepts these terms and conditions.
Each artist declares and guarantees that they are the legitimate creator of the submitted artworks and that they do not infringe upon the rights of any third party.

The artist authorizes NucleikArt to process their personal data in accordance with current data protection regulations.

Changes to Terms and Conditions

NucleikArt reserves the right to amend these terms and conditions, providing prior notice to the participating artists.
